Tumbling Coach

Inland Empire Gymnastics Academy in San Bernardino is HIRING! We are looking for an energetic coach to join our staff, and we have an immediate part-time position for a Tumbling Coach. We are looking for someone who is passionate about teaching and who has experience working with children 8 to 18 years. Our ideal candidate has coaching experience working with gymnasts or cheerleaders, spotting abilities (up to at least round-off back handspring, back tuck), a solid understanding of tumbling fundamentals and skill progressions, outstanding interpersonal skills, and a current USAG instructor or professional membership. If you do not have a current First Aid/CPR/AED certification, we will get you certified within 6 months. Evening and weekend hours required for position. Compensation based on experience. Health, dental and vision insurance coverage available after 3 months of employment for employees working 30 hours per week or more, with majority paid by employer. Immediate interviews are available for qualified candidates, so apply today!

Prerequisites:

- Must be at least 18 years of age.
- At least one year work experience working directly with youth, preferably in small group situations.
- Ability to lift and assist students in assigned classes (up to 130 lbs.)
- Energetic demeanor
- Ability to capture and hold children's interest
- Unafraid of public silliness
- Ability to "think on your feet" and change directions while maintain class control
- Communicate clearly and effectively with students, parents, co-workers and supervisors.
- Responsible, dependable and a positive role model for youth.
- Gymnastics, tumbling or cheerleading coaching experience
- BONUS – First Aid and CPR Certified

Responsibilities

- Engage students in fun and energetic ways within each class taught
- Understand the IEGA Tumbling Progressions and how to teach the skills required for each level.
- Know tumbling terminology.
- Plan and write lesson plans weekly, making adjustments as needed for each class.
- Set up assigned instruction area, based on lesson plans, making adjustments as needed for each class.
- Teach/coach assigned levels (Beginning, Intermediate, Advanced, BOYS Only).
- Spot students on skills when required or needed.
- Conduct periodic informal and formal in-class evaluations to assess student progress and mobility appropriateness.
- Clean up after each class, putting away mats/props and ensuring gym remains orderly.
- Meet monthly with the Gym Manager and/or Gym Owner.
- Work in collaboration with all IEGA coaches and staff
